HELENA—Sixth and Main.
NEW YORK—165 Sixth Av.

When you've saved money by buying here—and when you buy here you'll certainly save—you'll understand what brings the crowds. Maybe you think our claim of being always cheapest is far fetched—but it is backed by the prices to substantiate it. There's no mystery about why we sell cheap. It is all due to cash buying and cash selling.

We do most of the retailing of House Furnishings in Helena. This supremacy has not come to us by chance, but from having in stock at all times the goods the people want at prices they want to pay. Just now preserving utensils claim most of the housekeepers' attention. These special for Monday:

They cost a little more than the common sort, but they cost only half here what they would elsewhere. $1.50, $1.75, $2.00.

For traveling or for home use a pocket alcohol stove is always handy. The best sort—with folding stand, asbestos packing and extinguisher. Special for Monday 15c.

THE WEEK IN SOCIETY.

Dances Given by Mrs. W. B. Raleigh
in Honor of Miss Adele Howard.

The Small and Early Club Has a
Pleasant Evening at Mrs.
E. W. Knight's.

Gate of the Mountains Picnic—Fishing and Hunting Parties Taking to the Country.

Quite the event of the season was the dance given by Mrs. W. B. Raleigh, at her residence on Friday evening, to introduce her daughter, Miss Adele Howard, of St. Louis. The house had a very festive appearance, Japanese lanterns being suspended around the large porch. The floral decorations were sweet peas, the mantels being banked with them, and between the rooms fish net was artistically draped, which was interwoven with the fragrant flowers. Delicious refreshments were served on the porch. Mrs. Raleigh was assisted in receiving by Miss Susie Raleigh and Miss Adele Howard, and Mesdames Ashby, Ford, of Great Falls, Harris, O'Connor and Word. The following were their guests: Mrs. Raleigh, figured mousseline de sole, feather trimming and jet; Miss Raleigh, yellow tulle silk with satin stripe, trimmed in yellow chiffon; Miss Howard, grey crepe and black velvet, La France roses; Mrs. Ashby, figured China silk, black lace and velvet; Mrs. Ford, black and white silk, black lace and jet; Mrs. Harris, black satin and yellow crepe, gold passementerie; Mrs. O'Connor, changeable silk and silk embroidered lace; Mrs. Word, lavender lawn and Valenciennes lace and satin ribbon.

The other guests were: the Misses Sharpe, yellow crepe and lace; Rosenbaum, green crepe and pearl passementerie; Payne, white corded silk and ribbon; Callen, white swiss and watered silk; Ashby, pink satin and cream lace; Bessie Blake, white China silk, Nollie Blake, old rose silk, white multi overdraped; Botkin, coral watered silk and coral ornaments; W. die Bridenthal, pongee silk and blue satin trimmings; Ella Bridenthal, mauve silk and black velvet; Reising, green China silk; Greene, yellow crepe and satin ribbon; Matheson, yellow silk and black chiffon; Ryan, white swiss and lace; Hauser, figured faille and lace; Rosenbaum, white embroidered nun's veiling; Marge Raleigh, white mull and lace; Ballard, figured dimity and lace; Franklin, pink crepe and satin ribbon; Word, white dotted swiss and lace; Davenport, pink crepe and satin trimmings; Lowry, yellow silk and chiffon. The gentlemen were Messrs. Metten, Roadwater, Hill, Prosser, N. Holte, E. O. Holter, Albert Holter, Sanders, Hauser, Hansh, Beattie, Cullen, Ballard, Galen, Luke, Walker, Braden, Moss, Carnochan, Ferguson, Arnold, Harlow, Meyendorff, C. Word, L. The Small and Early club gave another of its delightful dances at the residence of Mrs. E. W. Knight, on Tuesday evening. The chaperones present were Mesdames Hauser, Brown, Katzy, Blake, Cory, Greene, and N. K. Holte. The young ladies were Misses Hauser, white crepe and ribbon; Howard, pink organdie and white lace; R. an, white crepe and ribbon; Payne, white mull and lace; Bash, blue moire, black lace and ribbon; Miller, pink silk and blue velvet; Cory, green crepe and black green velvet; Reising, white swiss over pink silk; Sadie Coryell, pink silk; Miss Coryell, changeable pink and green silk, black lace and velvet ribbon; Nelsons Atchison, pink china silk, accordion trimmings. McPhee, Davis, Broadwater and Dr. Harbour.

Among the many pleasant events of the past week was the picnic given on Tuesday last to the Gate of the Mountains. The party went down in a large band wagon driven by the expert four-in-hand driver, Wm. Lewis. Mrs. Johnson acted as chaperon for the party, and a more enjoyable time was never spent. The luncheon furnished by the young ladies was just as it always is, "delicious." Among the feast of the t was the ride down the canyon and the beautiful singing of H. B. Prentiss and Miss Bessie McManimon. As usual, the kodak played one of the principal parts. The party consisted of Mrs. Johnson, Misses Minnie and Martha Johnson, Charles L. Lewis, Mabel Larson, Stacie McManimon, of Anaconda, Clara Ballard, Bessie Scheffer, Lizzie Sweeney and Eva B. Id-nthal, and Haudley H. Prentiss, Percy H. Witmer, Jesse C. Ricker, William Barzen and Arthur Kleinhardt.

On Monday evening the members of the Montana club entertained their lady friends. It is with much pleasure that the announcement of these delightful receptions is heard, and we were unanimous in pronouncing this affair even a greater success than the one preceding it. Among those present from home and abroad were: Mesdames Brinson, G. W. Dickinson, Hammond, Charleston, Floyd-Jones, Murray, George Hill, Wallace, Bash, Kooker, Clayberg, Kennett, Wheeler, Flowers, Bradshaw, Toole, Harris, Raleigh, Brown, Potter, Cullen, Wells; Misses Payne, Cullen, Raleigh, Howard, Cook, Davenport, Hauser, Franklin, Reed, Atchison, Hoyt, Crutcher, Lockyer, Botkin, King, Rosenbaum; Messrs. JONES WANTS TO BE FREE.

He Asks a Habeas Corpus Because He Hasn't Had a Speedy Trial.

E. C. Russell and J. C. Barrows, counsel for Chas. Jones, the last of the famous gang which held up a Northern Pacific train at Grey Cliff, filed with Clerk Sprague, of the United States court, yesterday, a petition for a writ of habeas corpus. The alleged ground is that he has not had a speedy trial, one full term having elapsed without his case being heard. His second trial on the charge of murder was set for Aug. 6, but owing to the adjournment of the United States court because of the doubt that existed as to whether it was legally in session, his case was set for next term. The petition for the writ of habeas corpus will come up before Judge Knowles in chamber Monday.

In the action of the Montana Company, Limited, versus the St. Louis Mining company and Wm. Maygo, there was issued some time ago, on petition of the plaintiff, a temporary restraining order, relating to certain mining operations involved in the suit. It appearing that Wm. Maygo had been disobeying the order of the court he was bonded over in the sum of $250 till the November term of the United States court, when he was cited to appear and show cause, if he can, why he should not be punished for contempt.

Ladies Bros.

Ladies—On seventh page you will find our notice of having reached the millennium in dry goods this week. It is the all important event of the dry goods year! Tariff legislation—international questions, and even the China-Japan war all sink into insignificance, and disappear out of sight, when we come to contemplate the substantial advantages, the bumper of delight which we experience on entering a first-class dry goods store brimful with the newest, best selected, highest class merchandise and all marked in plain figures at "millionnaire sale" prices. It will be a week of genuine surprises to all who enter our store! Sands Bros.' "millionnaire sale" will be associated in your memory with such events as your "last European trip" or your "World's fair" experience—and the money-saving features of this sale are so remarkable as to form one of the pleasantest and certainly one of the happiest recollections of your dry goods shopping!

Shenandoah Valley Lands.

Why go West when such great opportunities exist in West Virginia, Maryland and the famous Shenandoah Valley, Virginia, a section possessing all the requisites for health, comfort and prosperity.

No region in the United States is attracting greater attention; people from the North and West are looking that way with a view of locating. Improved farm lands are to be obtained at from $8 per acre and upwards, unimproved timber lands at from $2 to $5 per acre.

Rich mineral lands are cheap, excellent water powers, manufacturing sites, business locations, etc., are numerous. The schools and churches are excellent; the people are hospitable and extend a warm welcome to new comers. The climate is unequalled, no severe storms or cyclones, no contagious diseases.

Half rate excursions from Chicago and all B. & O. towns in Indiana and Ohio, will be run to the Shenandoah Valley August 13th and 14th, September 4th and 18th, October 2nd, November 6th and December 4th.

CAPT. S. A. SWIGGETT.

What a Paper at His Former Iowa Home Says of Him.

The Ottumwa (Iowa) Daily Democrat of July 31, has this to say of Capt. S. A. Swiggett, who is a candidate for the republican nomination for sheriff of Lewis and Clarke county:

"From the Helena (Mont.) Herald, we learn that Capt. S. A. Swiggett, at one time sheriff of this county, will be a candidate before the republican convention for sheriff of Lewis and Clarke county. While occupying that responsible position in this county, Capt. Swiggett, we believe, gave general satisfaction, and proved himself to be an efficient, honorable and incorruptible officer, always prompt and faithful in the discharge of his duties. He is a gentleman of splendid ability, and because of his courteous and genial ways, and unusual personal magnetism, is very popular and is known as a great vote-getter. The Democrat feels an interest in Wapello county people and does not doubt that Capt. Swiggett will secure the nomination."

JOHNNY'S PRIZE ESSAY

[Copyrighted.]

SUCKERS

in water (fish) and on land (chumps) are kin. Neither discriminate; both are easily hooked. Land suckers divide in two classes; one never reads an ad., the other has a mania for alleged "bargains." Fucker like he puts implicit faith in the bait of cheapness, outfits from a dealer in job lot wares, and goes proudly to th to catch his funny cousin. If "fly" enough to get a bite, there is a struggle, broken tackle, profanity. Tries again, sacrifices more "cheap" tackle, utters emphatic comments. Repetition, fatigue, disgust. Returns crestfallen, with ruffled temper, empty basket, ruined tackle, and a resolve to hereafter buy fishing outfits from Parthen.
